There is an invisible wall. You don't know it's there until you try to get answers:

- (1) Why did my trying to expose the accounting trails bk467p191 result in my being removed as Trustee?
- (2) Why not find the CPA Joanne L. Barnes (EIN 541040148, SSN 579-44-3240?) and the Attorney Edward White, who did the accounting for our Mother's Estate, such as at bk467p191, and have them show where the money went?
- (3) What is the issue in "In Re: Harold A. O'Connell"?
- (4) Why is the 1992 Deed at bk8307p1446, which supersedes the 1976 (probated) Will of Harold A. O'Connell, not recognized and no explanation given?
- (5) Why is (4) not recognized as an obstacle to selling the Trust property?
- (6) Why is contract law not recognized in the Trust Agreement at bk8845p1449?
- (7) On what property was the lien sent to Highland County placed against?
- (8) How was the lien amount of $27,669.42. calculated?
- (9) Why the secrecy?

To the Honorable Judges of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit Court of Fairfax County, Virginia:

The Honorable Dennis J. Smith ←
The Honorable Marcus D. Williams
The Honorable Jane Marum Roush
The Honorable Johnathan C. Thacher
The Honorable R. Terrence Ney
The Honorable Randy I. Bellows
The Honorable Charles J. Maxfield
The Honorable Bruce D. White
The Honorable Robert J. Smith
The Honorable David S. Schel
The Honorable Jan L. Brodie
The Honorable Lorraine Nordlund
The Honorable Brett A. Kassabian
The Honorable Michael F. Devine

Please tell me if the enclosed Court notice is from the Judges or if it is from some alternative element speaking for the Court? I ask this because:

- (1) The notice is confusing and lacks accountability; there is no name, no signature, no point of contact, only a telephone number and "The Judges of the Fairfax Circuit Court" in the signature line.
- (2) The notice says "Case No. CL-2012-0013064", which matches the number on the summons and the injunction. The accusations in the summons and in the injunction are so blatantly false, and no evidence is provided to justify them, it's as if the law, the evidence, and accountability is not expected to be relevant.
- (3) The notice says "In Re: Harold A. O'Connell" but doesn't say what the issue is. Harold A. O'Connell is our Dad who died in 1975.

It would not be prudent for me to appear in Court unless the issues are defined and the evidence for the issues can be obtained beforehand. The present structure makes me dead on arrival; this is not due process.

The best of my two bad options is to not appear in Court, even though my not appearing could be made to appear as if I, rather than the accountants, were trying to hide something, and the terms of their summons and injunction might be approved by default.

Would you please put everything on hold until all of the plaintiff's issues can be identified and their evidence for their issues can be obtained? The known evidence I need before appearing in Court includes exposing the accounting trails in our Mother's estate at Bk467p191.

Background

This is extremely complicated and impossible to present in an understandable manner except by through websites.

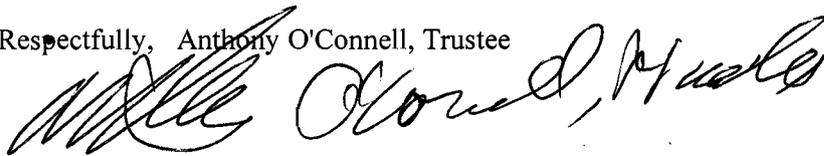

The CPA Joanne Barnes and the Attorney Edward White make money disappear and cover them selves by using an innocent family member as an unwitting agent to carry out their agenda. The evidence is in exposing the accounting trails at Book467page191 in the public record. I've tried to expose Bk467p191 for twenty years and the reaction has cost me my reputation, my family, and my solvency.

Exposing Bk467p191 would be the turning point, its the law, its common sense, and the public trusts that its done. Please use your power or call in federal powers that would do it. Please ask them to (1) protect our family, (2) find out where the money went and (3) untangle the accounting entanglements holding up the sale of our remaining family real estate that we call Accotink. Accotink is in a Virginia Land Trust and I am the Trustee.

Our family needs federal protection. The first thing our family needs is to have a federal agent personally visit our innocent sister Jean Nader at 350 Fourth Avenue, New Kensington, PA 15068, and convince her that she is being used by the accountants.

The terms of the summons and the injunction are for the benefit of the accountants and not for our family; it gives them unlimited control and cover of our family's assets and makes our family appear at fault. History suggests that the reason the accountants want to replace me with innocent Jean Nader as Trustee for Accotink is because they can use her as Trustee as they used her as co-executor in our mother's estate, to make money disappear.

Respectfully, Anthony O'Connell, Trustee

RE: In Re: Harold A O'Connell, CL-2012-13064

What is the issue in "In Re: Harold A. O'Connell"?

Dear Mr. O'Connell:

I have received your letter regarding the Notice of Scheduling Conference you received in case CL 2012 -0013064. This is indeed a valid notice from our court provided so that you would be aware of a Scheduling Conference at which we will, if appropriate, set a trial date and enter a scheduling order in accordance with the Uniform Pretrial Scheduling Order adopted by the Supreme Court of Virginia. No evidence will be taken at that time as this is only a hearing to establish the schedule for the orderly processing of the case.

As for accountability for the notice, it clearly indicates that it is sent by the judges of the circuit court and provides you with a phone number at which you can contact our case management staff with regard to the Scheduling Conference. We would not send out a notice indicating that you can contact the judges directly as such contact is inappropriate.

What is the issue in "In Re: Harold A. O'Connell"?

Your letter also indicates that you do not know what issues are raised in the case but our records indicate that you have responded to the Complaint which sets out the Plaintiff's allegations and prayer for relief so I therefore assume that you are acquainted with the issues which have been raised. As to whether the Plaintiff's allegations are true or merit relief, these issues will not be dealt with at the December 4, 2012 Scheduling Conference but are instead decided in the course of later proceedings or after a trial at which each side has had an opportunity to present evidence in the form of documents or testimony and make arguments as to the proper disposition of the issues.

You also request that our court take certain actions, but please note that Judges take actions based upon pleadings which are properly filed, and even then, only after each interested party has had an opportunity to respond and be heard on the request. Sending a letter to a judge is not filing a pleading in a case as pleadings are properly filed with the Clerk of Court. Additionally, copies of anything sent to the Court for filing must be provided to all other interested parties. As your letter does not indicate copies were sent to the other parties I will provide them with a copy of your letter and this response.

Finally, with regard to your participation in the Scheduling Conference at 8:30 a.m. on December 4, 2012, this is a civil case and it is your choice as to whether you participate in this administrative hearing or any further hearings. If you do not appear, the Court will proceed to establish scheduling without your input. We will, however, send you a copy of any Order that is entered at that hearing.

Sincerely Yours,

Dear Mr. O'Connell,

On a daily basis you continue to send these emails. As you know, we have repeatedly answered your inquiries numerous times. One such response from our collection attorney, John Rife, dated August 23, 2012 is attached for reference. Since that time this matter has come under the jurisdiction of the Fairfax County Circuit Court (see attached order dated October 5, 2012) and all delinquent real estate taxes on the 15 acres located in Fairfax County at tax map # 090-4-01-0017 have since then been paid.

Accordingly, and with all due respect, at this point we are treating your continuing emails as spam and no further response will be forthcoming.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. O'Connell,

As you know, I previously answered your question multiple times. There is no entanglement. There is no secrecy. The bank lien was only for delinquent real estate taxes on the parcel in Fairfax County (15 acres located in Fairfax County at tax map # 090-4-01-0017). The bank lien was released long ago. The delinquent taxes were paid prior to 2014. This issue is closed. The Fairfax County property is currently under the jurisdiction of the Fairfax County Circuit Court. This issue has nothing to do with any property outside of Fairfax County. No further communication is warranted in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kevin C. Greenlief, Director
Department of Tax Administration

Subject: What property is the $27,669 lien against?

Dear
Fairfax County Director of Tax Administration Kevin Greenlief,
Highland County Commissioner of Revenue Darlene Crummett,
Highland County Commonwealth Attorney Melissa Ann Dowd,
Highland County Sheriff Timothy Duff,
CEO of First and Citizen Bank Vernon D. Wooddell,
and State Senator Creigh Deeds:

Again, I ask you to please tell me what property this $27,669 lien is against. Please see the attachment "HighlandCourt10p".

This lien is for back taxes for a Trust property in Fairfax County (parcel 0904 01 0017) but it was sent to Highland County and then it's trail disappeared. Is it against the property described in the Highland County Court records at book 87 page 240? If so, is this being concealed? If so, why?

This lien entangles both properties, the Trust property in Fairfax County, and what ever it may be in Highland County, because of the secrecy. Those in control of this entangling lien control the people and assets that are entangled. History suggests that it would not be prudent, but that it would be foolhardy and really stupid, to try to sell either property until the secrecy surrounding this lien is removed. The secrecy obstructs the selling of both properties.

I don't understand why neither Fairfax County nor Highland County knows what property this lien is against. I appreciate Director Kevin Greenlief responding but I don't understand his responses:

"Dear Mr. O'Connell,

I previously responded on January 9th and several times prior to that. There is no entanglement. There is no secrecy. The bank lien was for delinquent taxes on the parcel in Fairfax County. The bank lien was released long ago. The delinquent taxes have been paid. This issue is closed. The Fairfax County property is currently under the jurisdiction of the Fairfax County Circuit Court. This issue has nothing to do with any property outside of Fairfax County. No further communication is warranted in this matter.

Sincerely,

Kevin C. Greenlief, Director
Department of Tax Administration
Fairfax County, Virginia"

(From Director Greenlief's February 4, 2014, email to Anthony O'Connell. Please see the attachment "HighlandCourt10p")

(From Director Greenlief's January 9, 2014, email to Anthony O'Connell. Please see the attachment "HighlandCourt10p")

The question is: "What property is the $27,669 lien against?". Director Greenlief does not answer this question. What is the lien's document trail after it was sent to Highland County? If it doesn't exist now, what is the document trail that shows that?

I don't understand why neither Fairfax County nor Highland County knows what property this lien is against.

Sincerely, Anthony M. O'Connell

Re: In Re: Harold A. O'Connell, CL-2012-13064

Mr. O'Connell,

I am in receipt of your multiple letters, the latest dated April 18, 2014, regarding the above referenced case. Please note that no action is initiated by sending correspondence to a judge as all pleadings must be filed with the Clerk of Court. In fact, your communication is considered to be an ex parte communication to the court which is prohibited. Pursuant to Canon 3B7 of Canons of the Judicial Conduct for the State of Virginia, judges can only permit or consider ex parte communications if the judge makes provision promptly to notify all other parties of the substance of the ex parte communication and allows an opportunity to respond.

A hearing was held in the above-referenced case on January 25, 2013. A final order was entered on January 28, 2013, a copy of which is enclosed. You will receive no further correspondence from this Court regarding this matter.

Respectfully yours,

Chief Judge Dennis J. Smith
